2022 LORCA AWARD FOR BEST DANCE SHOW AND BEST CONTEMPORARY DANCER FOR NIEVES ROSALES

The rage of the Furies has awoken in the midst of the 21st century. Their breath is the heat of Hell, full of witches, harpies, vengeful women who rise up in arms against a patriarchal society. Their skin marked with a feeling of guilt, even with the stigma of not knowing how to love, the Furies are back from Hell to avenge the history of women.
A production from the depths of the bowels of the earth to stir up the soul.
Nieves Rosales, who is from Malaga, has a degree in Choreography and Performance Techniques from the Superior Conservatory of Malaga, and a degree in Stage Direction and Dramaturgy from the Superior School of Dramatic Arts of Malaga. She completed her training with renown artists, including Israel Galván, Eva Yerbabuena, Aida Gómez and Antonio ‘el Pipa’. A benchmark of dance in Andalusia due to her personal conception of theatre and dance, she is also devoted to research and teaching. In 2010 she created SilencioDanza, which has participated in the main national and international theatre festivals and has been acknowledged wtih numerous awards.
