This is the story of Babar, a little elephant orphaned when his mother was taken away, and who was then chained. One day, he is rescued by Uncle Pepe and Chochotte, and now lives with them in the circus of the brave. The pair of artists will have to improvise and convince the elephant to perform a great trick to earn a few coins in order to eat.
Joaquín Casanova and Elisa Ramos founded La Maquiné in 2008. Since then they have created nine shows of great quality, The core element of their shows is their visual, gestural and musical language, which is also their unmistakable personal mark.
