Trapito, a piece of cloth chosen by Mara as her inseparable cuddly companion, gets lost. Trapito knows that Mara needs him, and he needs her. So he decides to go look for her, following his memories. They will take him to a place that is as cold as the North Pole and to one that is as hot as the savanna. But he also has other memories, and continues looking for her.
La Gotera de Lazotea was created in Jerez de la Frontera in 1981. Since then this veteran company has premiered 27 shows, participating in the main Spanish theatre networks and in numerous national and international fairs and festivals. The company's productions are known for the use of direct interventions in the form of dialogues, music, games, songs, and for its fun-filled creativity and originality. A guarantee of entertainment endorsed by a career of more than thirty years.
