On occasion of the publication of his first autobiographic book-record, 40 años, 40 canciones, the Spanish singer, guitarist, composer and song-writer Antonio Arco 'Arco' embarked on an acoustic tour in which he presents, with the sole accompaniment of his guitar and a piano, many of the most popular songs of his three solo albums and of his period as leader (until the end of 2015) and composer of the mythical Andalusian band El puchero del Hortelano.
In the last few years, he has published three albums that were selected by different media, such as MondoSonoro and RockSesión, as albums of the year they were launched, and was the protagonist of the documentary film Octavas together with Jorge Drexler and Seu Jorge. This surge of creativity has kept Antonio Arco at the forefront of Andalusian rock and flamenco fusion. He is currently preparing his fourth studio album, to be launched in 2022.
