2013 GALICREQUES AWARD FOR CAREER, LINE OF WORK AND COMMITMENT TO PUPPETRY

This is an adaptation of the popular Andalusian story about the friendship between Juanaca and his cow Vacarda, about some very bad thieves whose boss is a very clever and dangerous magician, and of how Juanaca, after they steal his cow, cleverly succeeds in finding her with the help of the children in the audience.

The group of puppeteers La Gotera de Lazotea was founded in 1981 in Jerez. Since then, the company has produced 27 shows, with which it has participated in the main theatre networks of Spain, and in numerous Spanish and international festivals and fairs. Its creative proposals are didactic, original and entertaining, and have been awarded numerous prizes. A live alternative to virtual entertainment, and above all, a guarantee of diversion based on more than forty years of professional experience.
