Cristo. Pasión y Esperanza is conceived as a musical spectacle in which different musical genres converge into a "brotherhood opera" of 19th century classical and folk music. The show's theme is the life and passion of Jesus Christ, from his birth to his resurrection, in which the orchestrated version of 'Campanilleros de Andalucía' is the central musical piece, accompanied by other well-known Andalusian brotherhood songs such 'Nazareno y gitano', 'Silencio' and 'Padre nuestro'. A unique, exclusive Passion of Christ based on the customs and traditions of penitence and processions of Holy Week in Andalusia.
