Sergio Dalma celebrates his career of three decades with 30… y tanto; a project consisting of a record and a tour that offer a new approach to his former hits and together with a presentation of his new music. Past, present and future brought together by one of the most personal and recognizable voices of the Spanish musical panorama.
It was in 1989 that Sergio Dalma introduced himself to the world with the album Esa chica es mía, which became a Platinum record and the first of a series of hits, with more than 4 million copies sold in the course of three decades. 30 years of iconic success and unforgettable records.
