Zenetianos is the title of Zenet's last album, a record of duets with the collaboration of artists which the multifaceted singer from Malaga greatly admires, in which he offers a recap of some of the most memorable songs of his vast repertoire. Zenet plans to present the album in Malaga accompanied by some very special guests with whom he will maintain the 'zenetian' essence: to work on the basis of the simple concept of stripping the song to its core and interpreting it together.
The "Andalusian crooner" is without a doubt one of the most important voices of the current independent musical panorama. Jazz is the common harmonious language spoken in his original, elegant, charismatic and nocturnal universe of sounds, with which he reinterprets other genres, such as fado, tango, swing, Cuban music, Spanish copla… Zenet, a classical genius, recognizable and evocative, carries us to different periods and places, and we follow wherever he goes.
