DANI ROVIRA • VALE LA PENA

A show to cry with laughter and vice versa

[Fundraising Gala – Do you want to help? 12th Edition]

Fundación Ochotumbao

1.45 h (w/out intermission)

danirovira.es

With this performance, Ochotumbao will raise funds for the benefit of 13 associations in Malaga: Adaner Málaga, Al-Farala, Altamar, Amappace, Ángeles Malagueños de la Noche, Aspaym Málaga, Avoi, Asociación Down Málaga, Jomad, Málaga Acoge, Nupa, AFA Málaga and Protectora de Animales and Plantas de Málaga

Campaign to collect blankets, sheets, towels... for the animals of the Protectora de Animales y Plantas de Málaga.

Following his shows ¿Quieres salir conmigo? and Odio, which toured Spain for years and were then broadcast by different television platforms, Dani Rovira is back with Vale la pena, a solo standup comedy in which concepts such as sadness, mourning, sorrow... are addressed, not with the objective of stigmatizing them but rather in an attempt to imbue them with the dignity and significance they have in our lives. Life Vale la pena [is worthwhile] and in life sorrow is also all right. Are you ready to come and laugh to tears and vice versa?

TEATRO CERVANTES | ECHEGARAY DE MÁLAGA

Dani Rovira is one of our most versatile artists. Comedian, actor, improviser, showman... he has been acting on stage for more than 20 years, with his particular brand of humour which leaves its mark. Neither film, nor radio nor television have ever succeeded in separating him from theatre. He claims that with Vale la pena he has once again crossed new boundaries in comedy.

The Ochotumbao Foundation is a non-profit initiative that aims to support projects geared at improving the life of the most disadvantaged persons, conserving the environment and defending animals.
