This is one of the most watched series and one of the most overwhelming successes on television nowadays. It has improved an already wonderful saga: The Karate Kid. Because Cobra Kai has managed to gather different generations to follow the tribulations of Johnny Lawrence and Daniel LaRusso. And its music has been able to perfectly capture not only the two worlds at odds in the series, but also both generations, that deal with their problems on and off the tatami. Its composers, Zach and Leo, return to Malaga with a vengeance.
A spectacular concert that you will not want to miss. Fight!
