EL PELIGRO DE LAS BUENAS COMPAÑÍAS

[THE DANGER OF GOOD COMPANY]
Lantia Escénica
Auhor Javier Goma
With Fernando Cayo, Carmen Conesa, Ernesto Arias and Miriam Montilla
Stage direction Juan Carlos Rubio

1.30 h (w/out intermission)

Two couples: the sisters Lola and Julia with their respective husbands, Tristan and Felix. Tristán, a renowned lawyer, suddenly faces a severe marital crisis due to the perverse effects of the proximity of his brother in law. Felix is a kind-hearted, attentive, affectionate person who has no defects, and is often compared to Tristan, which the latter does not like, causing an intense resentment on his part. Lola is a teacher of philosophy, but wishes to start a business. Julia is going to undergo surgery, concealing from the others the gravity of the operation so they do not suffer. Misunderstandings, confusion, impersonation, dramatic effects… The concatenation of misunderstandings begins at a family dinner and ends with a surprise party.
