Two girls who live on different planets find the book Persepolis. As they read it, they start wondering about the situation of women throughout history and embark on a journey through space and time that will bring them together at a point they have in common.

With great attention to detail, La Coja Dansa offers a tribute to all these writers who fought against the loss of their rights. A beautiful show which merges comics, dance, video mapping and film with surprising results.

La Coja Dansa is one of the most consolidated companies of the Valencian Community. They are experts in the use of audio-visuals as an element for theatre and in the creation of small worlds full of nuances and uncertainties with exquisite
