Geppetto has carved a wooden puppet, which he names Pinocchio and adopts when the toy comes to life. But Pinocchio is rebellious and disobedient. One day he runs away from home and grows up in the midst of fabulous adventures, full of danger as well as affection, with Cricket, the Fox and the Cat, the fire-eating puppeteer, the girl with blue hair... Geppetto leaves his house to look for Pinocchio, and ends up in the sea, having been swallowed by a shark. Pinocchio eventually finds and rescues Geppetto, and takes care of him for ever after.

Ultramarinos de Lucas was founded in Guadalajara in 1994, and its members are from theatre schools such as the École International of Jacques Lecoq in Paris and La Abadía in Madrid. Its repertoire includes shows for adults and families, characterised by their honesty and high artistic quality.
