Vicente Amigo, an essential figure of the world of guitar and contemporary music, is back with a luxury quintet and a renovated show. After the long months of the pandemic, this will be a concert to celebrate with a repertoire based on his recent albums, in the pursuit of what is perdurable as a personal antidote to these times of uncertainty. Flamenco sounds full of nuances and emotions. Music that rises from its Andalusian and Spanish roots towards universality, with a few surprises. Compositions and melodies that stem from a very personal inner world, in a permanent attempt to understand oneself and at the same time embrace others: a channel of communication through emotions and beauty. Record by record, Vicente Amigo has proven to be one of the most innovating and fertile creators of present-day music. Two Grammys, the Gold Medal of Fine Arts, the Ondas Award and the Bordón Minero de La Unión award witness a career based on creative passion, hard work and consistency.
