1.30 h (w/out intermission)

According to the Kaon Lin tradition of Chinese culture, the god Kuan Lon, the sole deity who lives in a canteen, allows human beings to enjoy the gift of clairvoyance fourteen times in their lifetime. They could care less about this bimillenary tradition, like all the others, and since fourteen times does not seem enough, they decide it should be 17 times. Because if something is clear, it's that Faemino y Cansado do exactly what they want.

The comedy duo Faemino y Cansado do not talk about the present, they don't do imitations, don't tell jokes about politicians and use very little scenery or accessories. Their shows are a series of gags, usually about common situations taken to the realm of the absurd; and their almost surrealistic humour is a mixture of down to earth and lofty views of timeless matters.
