The best compilation ever in the history of Les Luthiers. With Radio Tertulia as the unifying thread, we will delight in some of the best known pieces of their career; pieces carefully selected and integrated that acquire a new dimension without losing their original essence. There are fabulous versions of Las majas del bergantín (Zarzuela náutica), Quién mató a Tom McCoffee (Música en serie), Loas al cuarto de baño (Obra sanitaria) and Pepper Clemens sent the messenger, nevertheless the reverend left the herd (ten-step).

Les Luthiers is a group of Argentinian musicians-actors-humorists whose name comes from one of the features of the performances, namely the unusual use of instruments they make themselves. They celebrated their 50th anniversary in 2017, receiving that
