Inspired by Daniele Finzi Pasca's novel of the same name, Nuda is a show full of mystery and surprise, in which the depths and the abyss are in constant dialogue with a light and luminous world consisting of overlapping planes that interact with each other. An acrobatic and theatrical game, an innovative flight system, the interaction of lights and narration, and a powerful sound universe comprise this magical and surrealistic proposal.
The show, performed by five extraordinary artists, combines the power of theatre with a dreamlike poetic narration, in absolute harmony with the physical theatre and the aerial dance. Two twin sisters who grew up in a family that was eccentric, yet similar to others, touch each other, brush against each other, step on each other and then rediscover each other in an embrace full of recovered joy and freedom.
Daniele Finzi Pasca was the director of the Circo del Sol shows Corteo y Luzia and of international Olympic ceremonies and operas. His company's special poetics stem from the concepts of the Theatre of the Caress and Invisible Gesture. Developed over the course of 38 years of experience, its shows have consolidated a unique aesthetics and a very personal style of creation and production, where the manner in which space is inhabited is essential.
